FOREWORD

School days are filled with the fun and activity of study, clubs, sports, and the joy of being young and full of energy. The days stretch very quickly into years, and the children who entered these doors leave as young men and women. The last year, the senior year, passes very quickly. It leaves a host of memories to remain forever in our hearts and minds. These are the memories mirrored here, within these pages of our PANTHER for 1964.

Class History

In this our most wonderful year of school, we seniors have hoped to leave a good and everlasting impression of our deeds and actions on our teachers and school.

We entered into a world of class-changing and complicated subjects in our Freshman year. Our homeroom teacher was Mr. Phillips. Nancy Welch, President; Elaine Willett, Vice-President; Gary Jones, Secretary; and Jesse Brady as Treasurer were elected as our class officers.

In our Sophomore year we were all firmly entrenched in our new and varied activities of school. Miss G. Badgett was our home room teacher. Our class officers were Tina Phillips, President; Leonard Allen, Vice-President; Jesse Brady, Secretary; and Steven Brady, Treasurer.

As jolly Juniors our thoughts turned to our banquet and we selected as our theme, "In Apple Blossom Time." We again won the Polio Drive as we had done since our Freshman year. Our class officers were Nancy Welch, President; Carol Lee Brewer, Vice-President; Benny Williamson, Secretary; and Gary Jones, Treasurer.

In our Senior year we were entering the home stretch of our high school education. This was a time of caps and gowns and invitations. We were able to put out an excellent annual and at the same time keep up a good academic record. Mrs. Betty Caviness was a most wonderful homeroom teacher. Our class officers were Benny Williamson, President; Marlyn Scott, Vice-President; Hilda Andrews, Secretary; and Nancy Welch, Treasurer.

These last four years of each of our lives will be remembered and cherished for many years to come. These were the years that our lives and destinies were being formed. These were the magic years of our lives.

Alan Phillips,
Class Historian

Class Prophecy

Alas! The time for revealing the forthcoming years of the Seniors of '64 has arrived. As each goes forth into the world, we see each playing the following role.

Hilda Andrews is now a hairdresser in one of Hollywood's most famous salons.

Who is Ben Casey's favorite nurse that we always see on T.V.? None other than Linda Caviness.

Roland Phillips is now running his own dairy farm in Pleasant Grove. He always did like farming.

Who is this we always hear singing Rock'N Roll on T.V.? None other than Donald Garner.

Montie Murray is now an X-Ray Technician at Chapel Hill. She always did like to work with people.

Who do we see modeling coats for Seventeen Magazine? None other than Barbara Wallace.

Carnegie Hall is now presenting our own concert pianist, Charles Garner. After his appearance there he will begin a weekly television show for C.B.S.

Who ever thought that Gary Jones would be the first man on Mars? He has speeded up since his high school days.

A beautiful home on the Moore County line is the residence of Carol Lee Brewer and her husband.

Patsy Jordan is now residing in the Rocky River Church Community. She has recently added a wedding band to that diamond she wore at Bennett High.

The greatest race driver in the U.S. these days is our own Jesse Brady. He has a steady hand at the wheel.

Steven Brady now owns a wholesale house specializing in the distribution of shaving cream.

Now working at General Electric is Clara Jean Jones. Soon the house she and her Robbins-born husband built will be paid for in full.

Tina Phillips is now the executive secretary for General Motors, Inc. She always did like Chevrolets.

The heavy-weight champion of the world is now Leonard Allen. His next fight will be in Bennett, North Carolina.

Marlyn Scott, the much-heralded cager for Bennett Panthers, is soon to begin coaching the Duke Blue Devils.

Who is this who has recently written a book of poems? None other than Gearlene Hussey.

Sarah Jordan is now the top designer in Hollywood. She always did have a way with clothes.

Our favorite movie star is Benny Williamson. He knows how to make everyone forget his troubles.

Who is this we see designing space crafts for Project Apollo? Our own Alan Phillips. He always did like drawing and reading.

Elaine Willett has finally settled down with her husband and is now living in the Welch residence in Bennett.

Nancy Welch is now back at dear Ole Bennett High teaching French. She really understood that French in high school!

Who is this we see as President of the University of North Carolina? Our one and only David Hussey.

Jimmy Cox is now the owner of Ford Motor Company. He always could handle those Fords.

Who is this we see as floor-lady at Union Carbon? None other than Nancy Lee Brown. She always did have a way with people.

Who do we see running for President of the U.S.? Our own David Coble, whose favorite topic of discussion was politics, or rather the Democrat Party.

Richard Caviness is now the proud owner of his own Chicken Plant. He always did like to catch chickens.
